United Nations Watch

(Sent exclusively to supporters of former Army SPC Michael New, the ONLY American soldier ever convicted of the crime of wanting to serve his own country.)

We could use your help here. I've been working on a new book that will hopefully educate our troops to several things, helping them understand that when they are forced into mercenary military service for the United Nations, they:

- (A) cease to be exclusively American troops serving an exclusive American interest;
- (B) probably violate their oath of loyalty to the Constitution; and
- (C) become cannon fodder for the New World Order.

The working title of this book is:

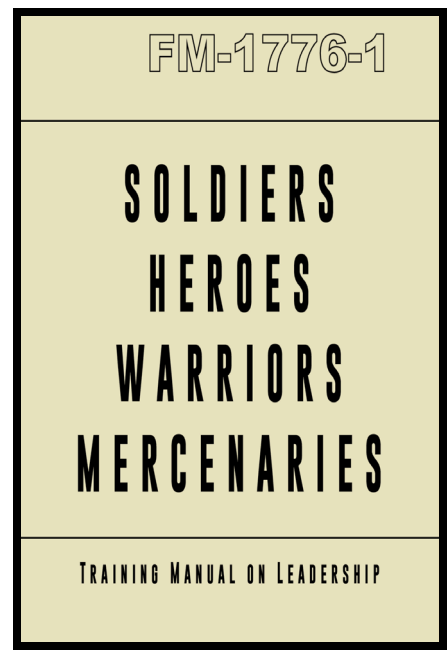

“SOLDIERS – HEROES – WARRIORS – MERCENARIES”

- A lot of soldiers think they are warriors, when they are not.
- A lot of soldiers don't realize they are mercenaries when they actually are.
- A lot of civilians think all soldiers are heroes, because they wear a uniform.
- And a lot of potential recruits have no idea they're about to be used to build the New World Order.

In other words, there's a lot of confusion out there, and we hope to dispel some of the confusion and more importantly, plant some seeds of patriotic duty in the minds of this new generation of military personnel.

The first question is about format. Shall we go with a simple 8.5"x11" format, copying one form of the Army's Field Training Manuals? Or shall we go with a small booklet that can be slipped into a uniform pocket and read when things are slow, either in the barracks, or on the field? (Like the pocket Constitutions. And should we include the Constitution in the text?) What is your opinion?

Depending on format, we can print from 1,000 to 2,000 of these short booklets, for a budget of around $2,400. That won't reach near enough soldiers, but it will give us enough booklets to test their effectiveness, and to then raise the funds to print a second run of 10,000 copies, at a much-reduced price per copy. This way we don't have to borrow money – something we just won't do.

We can only do this with your help. If you want a piece of this project, please send a donation, and while you're at it, tell us which format you think would be most effective. Once in print, every donor will get at least one free copy of the first edition.

This is an important follow-up to my first book, which told the story of what happened to SPC Michael New, but will stand alone as well, and like the first, we pray it will stand the test of time, being as relevant twenty years from now as it is today.

In the book I give examples of each category, in an attempt to make it more interesting, and educational to the reader; Heroes like Hugh Thompson, helicopter pilot who stopped the My Lai massacre in Vietnam; Desmond Doss, pacifist in WWII who saved many lives as a medic; and George Patton, warrior. I think you'll enjoy it as well.

be prepared to give up their sovereignty.”

Angela Merkel

I'm determined to finish writing this book, but have no idea if we'll be able to get it printed and into the hands of those whose sworn duty it is to support and defend the Constitution of the united States, and to restore our Republic.

For a Constitutional Republic, under God, once again,

Daniel New (for Suzanne, Mike and family)

PS. If you're a veteran and would like an advance copy, perhaps sent as an attached file in PDF format, and would like to comment or make editorial suggestions, nothing would please this author more! You might also like to give us an endorsement to use in promotion (hopefully). (c:
